There's a time when we will understand
as the sweet subtle memories
are upon us
the time when youth comes back to us

Will we smile?

We will understand.
Understand time.

Yes, there's still time to go back and remember.

A beast that contains all the fate of tomorrow,
Is often believed not to have exist in the past.
But dreams will exist if you believe deeply enough.
But strongly enough to last.
His power came from his hooves
with which he could trample all below.

And beauty from within his hair,
with which he could deceive his fellow.

Dreams circled throughout his mane,
And went to all those who call.

And intelligence from his head,
Which gave him wisdom over all.

Mystic pooled his eyes,
And cried "I'm one over every!"
But the most enchantment one could ever see,
Was the magic from his horn.
It gleamed high above him,
Only seen by the newborn.

The beast is a dream come true,
But never to be seen.

The beast is a Unicorn,
A Unicorn of dreams.

Sophomore Edmund Urquiza took over Rich Lamas place as editor. With Mrs. Trempe (not pictured) advising and Dave Miranda as Editor-in-Chief, Smoke Signal enjoyed a fantastic year. Although it was rough going at times, Mrs. Trempe and Dave were always available to advise on deadlines, stories, headlines, and interviews. All in all the staff this year did an exceptional job of putting the paper together and getting it out in time with photographers Jennifer Perkins, Joe Wanamaker, and Craig Cockerill often doing double-duty.

WHITE STUDIOS

TITLE PAGES BY:

LINDA STEWART

THANK YOU TO ALL THE PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THEIR WORK, JERRY AND WHITE STUDIOS FOR ALL THEIR HELP. AND A SPECIAL THANKS TO TOM IMMING FOR HIS INVALUABLE ASSISTANCE IN THIS YEARBOOK.

To whom it may concern:

This is a short statement at the end of this mess that a co-editorship does not work!! Don't get me wrong. I liked the people I worked with, even Wes, who I sometimes treated like CENSORED. The continuity of the book is LOST in the communication between editors. So are a lot of pictures, copy, photo assignments, and friendships. But that's all I've got to say about that.

As for all the people who have put up with my CENSORED when things were late, here are all by sincere thanks. And for all the people who had to suck up my CENSORED from this book like ASB, well, here's some more. Mr. Simmons, take a hint next time concerning the editorship, get some guts and make a decision.

To my Alma Mater
So Long Suckers,
Jason Hendrix

As you can see that AKELA came out. Even though it was hard work putting this yearbook, I enjoyed it. And so I, the editor (or as this year, co-editor) give thanks to all the people who helped produced this yearbook. First, a special thanks goes to Jason Hendrix, who shared the title (and the headaches) of editorship with me. And an extra special thanks to Mr. Simmons, a man who became advisor when I was a little sophomore taking the AKELA class for the first time, and who put up with me for three years. We both grew up in this yearbook, starting with a little knowledge about how to put a yearbook together, and culminating in this work of art.

To Mr. Imming, I give thanks for his help and seemingly endless knowledge of yearbooks, and for sticking your neck out When we, somehow, missed a deadline. Also I would like to give my thanks to Carol McHale, Lori Olson, Johannes Pena, Mike Rogers and Coleen Uchida for the extra effort they put into this yearbook. And to all the AKELA Staff, thanks, and pat yourself on the back for a job well done. I think this year's AKELA Staff "wrote the book" on school spirit and true dedication. The proof is in your hands.

Thank you for everything,
Wes Uchida
CO-EDITOR OF AKELA '82

Mark Kallem, class of 1982, died in a scuba-diving accident this past summer. Mark was a member of the track team and had a very promising senior season ahead of him.

Mark began his athletic career at Burroughs as a very average distance runner. It wasn't long, however, before he switched to the triple jump and began to show talent. In the season finale of his junior year against arch-rival Burbank High, with the meet on the line and all the pressure in the world riding on him, Mark responded by producing a life-time best jump that almost saved the meet for us.

This achievement gave Mark the respect of his teammates as an athlete. More importantly, it seemed to produce an inner confidence that he could measure up to the expectations he felt others had of him. It was obvious to those close to Mark that his involvement with the track team was a key element in his short life; so much so, that he was buried with his varsity letter.

Mark was well-liked and we shall miss him this year. We will not however, forget him. Believing it is what he would have wanted, his parents have donated his savings account of nearly $1400, to the completion of the track team's new triple jump facility, a project Mark himself had spent many hours working on. A memorial plaque will be placed on the completed runway. In addition, we will be presenting each year the "Mark Kallem Most Inspirational Trophy," a legimate title in light of Mark's accomplishments and dedication to the team. Finally, we will dedicate the 1982 track season to the memory of Mark Wayne Kallem, a friend and teammate who died too soon.

"OUR GANG"

I. L. O.

INDIAN LIBERATION ORGANIZATION

Your local I.L.O. has been very active this past year. With great support from our President Jason Hendrix, Vice-President Greg Barbula, and Public Relations man Johannes Peña, we have managed to keep Injun Joe under control. With a few special appearances now and then and a little hall roaming, he has had a good view of most of the school. He studied some low level drama and music, came out of the dark on health, copied layouts for this book, and has finally retired to his two room apartment. He is very glad to have such an organization backing him but we need your help. Don't let him get locked up in Reservation ASB. He needs his freedom! Save him from corruption! Liberty is life. This is a plea to someone to continue our work. You owe it to your school. Save him! If you can find him. Dear Katherine

I hope you read this out of your very own yearbook together we have built a magnificent relationship. At this time in March til you read this we'll have enjoyed it for some ~~too little~~ time. And now we have the summer. Afterwards when we go along our own ways we will have memories but not of a passing phase but of a stage in life we shared together in the shaping of ourselves affected by the sharing of each other. This may appear to be saccharine and simplistic but it is truly the way I feel and have always felt for you exactly the way you are. I will always feel this love for you esp. in 10 years I love you, Jason

We have know each other for 5 years. It's been great to be friends with you! Remember: Pickwick goins through the dark alley and the final solution, cramming 3 people in (the now deceased) X-19, our "friend" at Arrow. I know there is a lot more we done and there's more to be done by us, "What are words for", "Walking through LA"

"Mental Hopscotch" and the other basic MISSING PERSONS' songs. I want to thank you for the memories and making this year one of my best. Best wishes
